OFFICE OF THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

For Immediate Release

Meru University of Science and Technology is NOT on strike!

Thursday, March 12, 2020: Our attention has been drawn to reports circulating on social media on Wednesday, March 11, 2020 purporting that students of our University were involved in a strike.

The University management would like to categorically state that our University is NOT on strike.

Meru University of Science and Technology (MUST) is in session. Our dedicated faculty and staff are committed to providing Quality Education. Our hardworking MUST students remain focused on achieving academic excellence in our serene and peaceful University campuses. To the parents and guardians of Meru University of Science and Technology, your children are safe.

I appeal to the public to refrain from sharing misleading information to avoid sparking unnecessary tension.

The MUST family is united.

Prof. Romanus Odhiambo, Ph.D
VICE CHANCELLOR
